The Class of 1963 Presents

THE TORCH

" . . . Be yours to Hold it High . . . "

—Macrae

IN DEDICATION TO . . .

MISS HELEN KELLEHER

We, the Class of 1963, wish to express our deepest appreciation to Miss Kelleher, our one advisor who has remained with us for the three most important years of our high school career. To her we dedicate this yearbook in hopes that she will never forget the years she spent guiding us at Whitman-Hanson Regional High School.

We—the year book staff of 1963—present you with an original publication, "THE TORCH." Through the medium of print and pictures, the staff has attempted to convey to you the many experiences of our past four years.

Now, we look to the future. We have chosen as our theme, "Be Yours to Hold it High," for we realize that in today's complex, fast-moving world, it is imperative that we hold our goals and ideals high before us. Like the Torch of Freedom and the Light of Learning, our "Torch" will always be a reminder of our obligations to our parents, our community, and ourselves.

"REMEMBER

All the thrills and hopes of being in high school, even as freshmen, soon weakened at the thought of attending school from twelve noon until 4:30 p.m.!

Since we didn't have much time inside of or outside of school to become acquainted with all our new classmates, we were unable to elect class officers. In place of this a student delegate from each homeroom was elected to represent our Freshman Class at Student Council. Our representatives were Dennis Shay, Brenda Johnson, Raymond Fish, Jonathan Nutter, Nancy Willis, and George Peterson.

Lacking organization, we were unable to sponsor a dance or have any of our own activities; furthermore, the time problem prevented us from joining any clubs or activities that the upperclassmen belonged to. Through the efforts of our teachers we were able to make a few trips to Boston, and to hold a mock election and political rally, though.

In short, our freshman year did not quite live up to our expectations, but the outlook brightened when we learned that we would be able to attend the new Whitman-Hanson Regional High School the following September.

1960-1961

Our Sophomore year held a triple thrill for us. We were coming closer to the ranks of upperclassmen; we were in a new school; and we could now participate in all the sports and clubs offered at the high school.

For the first time we held class elections. We elected James Leeth as our president, Suzanne Smith as Vice-President, Ronald Hill as treasurer, and Claudia Carey as secretary.

Miss Kelleher and Mr. Burbank became our class advisors. Now we really felt that we could participate in the school activities.

We wanted an original theme for our dance, so we decided upon a Hawaiian setting. Thus, the Sophomore Dance became Kapu Hale, (or "Forbidden Hideaway.") Who ever dreamed that soon we would be tripping over palm trees and making hundreds of Kleenex flowers!

We elected Raymond Fish, George Peterson, Janice Byrnes, Walter Adams, John Jefferson, and Wayne Matthews as our Student Council representatives.

At all our games our cheerleaders, Dianne Hickey and Susan Rutkausas, could be heard leading the cheers and Suzanne Smith could always be found marching as a majorette along with the band.

Although the football season didn't prove very successful, the Sophomore Class was represented quite well by Dave Hayden, Jim Leeth, Richard Hill, Richard Bereika, Ronald Jackson, John Jefferson, Walter Adams, Dennis Chighisola, Wayne Matthews, Ronald Hill, Michael Publicover, Harold Braddock, Allan Pearse, Robert Long, and Timothy Hickey.

George Peterson, John Begg, James Leeth, Gene Reed, Ronald Hill, Mike Publicover, Richard Bereika, Jonathan Denham, and Wayne Matthews represented us on the basketball team.

Track proved to be just as much of a challenge for the boys with Mark Ewell, Harold Braddock, Gene Reed, Allen Emery, Larry Roache, Allen Tufankjian, and John Jefferson participating.

The girls' basketball team boasted a fine season, with four sophomores, Cheryl Lovell, Donna Daley, Marcia Fullerton, and Mary Ann Swienimer, working hard.

All in all, the Sophomore Class was a credit to Whitman Hanson!

1961-1962

Entering our junior year, we elected as class officers: Wayne Matthews, President; Suzanne Smith, Vice President; Ronald Hill, Treasurer; Claudia Carey, Secretary. Our activities were carried out under the direction of Miss Kelleher and Mr. Trojano. Home Room representatives included Martin Wheeler, David Horner, Edward Santos, Lois DeCoste, Dianne Hickey, Janice Byrnes, and Carol Bodwicz.

Representing us in the Student Council were Shelley Smith, Judy Bacher, Donna Daley, Bonnie MacLeod, Joan Heney, and Paula Hamelin.

WHEN''

The football team had a shaky season, losing three games by a touchdown, winning two, and the others . . . well! Juniors on the team were Gene Reed, Richard Bereika, David Hayden, Harold Braddock, Timothy Hickey, Richie Hill, Edward Santos and Irwin Harlow.

The basketball team had a rebuilding year —enough said! Junior players were George Thrasher, Ron Hill, Richard Hill, George Peterson, David Sullivan, and Gene Reed.

Dennis Chighisola, Irvin Harlow, David Howard, and Eddie Santos were the junior class's contributions to the baseball team. Their biggest win was an upset victory over Plymouth. Throughout the year, the junior class showed its school spirit by attending each sports event regularly.

Our social schedule consisted of two main events; the junior dance, "Oriental Holiday", which proved a financial and social success, and the Junior Prom, "Moon River," the highlight of our school career.

Another credit to the junior class was the annual Spellman Essay contest in which three juniors took the prizes: Marilyn Brine, first prize, Dianne Hickey, second prize, and Jean Winter, third prize.

At last it came, our Senior Year! A whole list of activities stretched before us: our Class Play, our own yearbook, the Senior Reception, the Football Banquet, and of course, Graduation. We elected the following class officers to lead us through this most important year: Wayne Matthews, President; Suzanne Smith, Vice President; Judy Bacher, Secretary; and Ronald Hill, Treasurer. Miss Kelleher again returned as advisor, this time aided by Mr. Randall.

Our first social event of the season—and our last class dance—was "Autumn Leaves", held on the evening of October 11. This "kicked off" an active fall program for the Senior Class and also a very successful football season. Many seniors turned out to watch the Panthers win two games, tie three, and lose two. Ronnie Hill, Tommy Thrasher, Richie Hill, Dave Hayden, Allen Pearse, Dennis Chighisola, Gene Reed, and Irvin Harlow were certainly a credit to Whitman-Hanson and to their team! In honor of their hard work, a Football Banquet was given by the Senior Class on February 11, with Mr. Henry Lamar, freshman football coach at Harvard, as guest speaker.

Several seniors held offices in Student Council this year: Richard Hill, president; John Jefferson, vice-president; and Paula Hamelin, secretary. Also elected to the Council as delegates were Donna Daley, Bonnie MacLeod, Martin Wheeler, Paul Scott, and Kevin O'Brien. They were very instrumental in planning for the New York trip—a three-day tour of New York for the Senior Class, tentatively planned for May 1, 2 and 3.

The Senior Class Play promises to be a highlight of the Senior year, Entitled, "Lilacs in the Rain," it includes a cast of five boys and six girls, not yet chosen. Under the direction of Mr. Harrison, however, it cannot help but be successful!

Again, the seniors took the top three prizes in an essay contest—this time in the local V. F. W. contest, "What Freedom means to me!" Judy Bacher won first prize, Bonnie MacLeod, second, and Nancy Paige, third.

The winter season brought the basketball games, and although the team's record was not impressive, we appreciate the efforts of seniors Gene Reed, Ron Hill, Tommy Thrasher, Richie Hill, Charlie Senechal, Mike Publicover, Wayne Matthews, and Dick Bereika.

At the present, we are anticipating Class Night, Graduation, and the many activities that will culminate our senior year.

CLASS

New York on New Year's Eve—wild, weird, and wonderful! It's a perfect description of the festivities this New Year's Eve, as our Class of '63 converges on the celebrated nite-spots of Broadway to hail the new year—1984.

Our first stop tonight is to check out the gay celebration at O'Brien's Penthouse, where George Gray, new editor of Playboy, guides us on a personal tour. Backstage, we pause to watch ace photographer Dick Walsh with George's twelve new models, Marilyn Meinhold, Honey Bodwicz, Cathy Littlefield, Brenda Pina, Sandy Eldridge, Eileen Humfryes, Janice Wolfe, Nancy Willis, Sally Rust, Jane Allen, Judy Gorrill, and Lois DeCoste, as they pose prettily for the New Year's Playmate Calendar. Returning now to the main room, we can listen for a while as Marcia Caswell, accompanied by Bob Pratt, belts out selections from "Madame Butterfly" with encores from "Monsieur Mortenson." But the real hit of the evening is Sue Smith sounding off with "Won't you come home, Big Mal T." There he is now, sauntering down the aisle towards the stage!

Let us leave their tearful reunion, and head for Ewells' "Clod Club" where we'll be just in time to hear Mott's stupendous Royal Nine singers, Bob Conway, Lenny Baker, Richie Hill, Paul Scott, Dave Hayden, Gene Reed, Paul Flebotte, Stan White, and Paul Murphy, wail out their latest smash, "Whatever Happened to F. D. R.?" Over in the corner, we observe the only intellectual patron, Nancy Paige; her nose is in the new bestseller, How I Copied Term Papers in College, by Ken Brown, with the Gaelic translation by our expert Donna Daley.

The walls of Cantoni's Canteen are vibrating with the cool sound of hot jazzmen Russ Wilde, Sal Ciccio, Ernie Wilbur, and Janet MacRoberts. This festival is in full swing as they wildly compete for the Happy Harraden Trophy and a smile from Mary Lou Adams, petite queen of Jazz land.

We hear strains of Rock 'n Roll coming from Freel's Free-For-All, where our dizzy-duo, Lawson and McNair, thrill the crowd with their crazy "Detention Room Rock." As the music becomes quiet and more rhythmic, Marie Gonsalves and Eddie Santos come "Limboing" in. We're waiting, hoping to get a glimpse of John Begg and Shelley Smith dancing the sophisticated special—the "Guerra Strut". Here they are in a remarkable performance. The dancing is interrupted by screaming in Ray's "Fishy Fantasy Land." Sounds like Sandra Stafford and Bev Nihill. Rushing to the scene, we see the cause for alarm: through the skylight, a Simmons Saucer designed by Bob Chase is quickly descending. Emerging from this strange contraption are, not space monsters, but our own :"Astronuts," Martin and Bob McGlone, who have set the new record for an extended orbit—21 years! One of them just stepped on a piece of glass from the shattered skylight, and doctors Cubi and Morgan are being summoned by passer-by Betty Lou Ware. While Bob is being bandaged, Marty relays their curious capers to renowned interpreters Paula Hamelin and Wally Adams. Maybe George Peterson and Richard Sheldon will write their biography, and then turn it over to Jerry Villano to produce a movie starring Roland Morse and Ken O'Connell as our space heroes. It will attract millions! (Probably lose millions, too!)

A bit tired from all this commotion, we are seeking a quiet hideaway and a refreshing drink. Dee Hickey's Teahouse looks inviting. Heading in that direction we notice many theatres here open for New Year's Eve extravaganzas. At Blanchard's Hippodrone is "Three Times Around" by David Howard and starring Cheryl Lovell and Sandy Conant as the ruthless gym teachers at W. H. R. H. Across the Boulevard, we can't resist stopping for the opening scenes of "Kick a Field Goal" co-starring Tom Thrasher and Dianne Maloney, also with Dennis Chighisola, Allen Pearse, Irvin Harlow, and introducing our lonely twin, Ron Hill.

Next door a mob is about to break in to see "For a Penny" starring Bonnie Renny and Jody Jefferson, with David Sullivan and Cathy Bell—all turning in Academy-Award winning performances.

We've reached the Teahouse, and waiting to make us comfortable are attractive Geisha Lonnie Wong and her novice ,but pretty assistants, Pat Goff, Barbara Ward, Joan Heney, and Carol White. They are entertaining big business tycoon Bob McPate, who is accompanied by his secretary, Donna Reckord. Our relaxation is short lived, for the blaring brass from Bradshaw's Band can only mean the traditional New Year's Eve Parade is underway.

From the doorway of the Teahouse, we wave to Officers Pool and Romano, who are clearing the streets by running everyone down on their motorcycles. Performers from Ringling Bros. Circus put Jon Nutter laughing so hard, he is rushed to Joy Dunbar's rest home. Goldy Locks—it could only be Blondie Fullerton in disguise—is prancing up the avenue with her three teddy bears Paul Griffin, Joe McLaughlin, and Warren Munro. Following the floats, comes Merry Ford as little red riding hood. She is running awfully fast. Oh, now we see—the big bad wolf, Allen Emery, is giving her a frantic chase. Bringing up the rear is our favorite comedy team, Jimmy Leeth and Mike Publicover in the guise of Laurel and Hardy.

Reminiscing about old friends, we mention that we haven't seen Marilee Rich, Elaine Smith, and Paula Brouillard. To our surprise we learn that they are on a cruise around the world, and preparing to make a stop in Brazil to see Eddie Williams who is running a coffee plantation. We turn around and find Betty Barnett and Judy Wetmore, attentively watching the parade.

We've shouted ourselves hoarse, and a Doyle Whollap sounds great to soothe our sore throats. Senechal's Key Club is fabulous, we know, but we haven't got keys! . . . Cops Campbell and Denham were easy to sneak by and now, safely inside, we are checking our hats with hat-check girls, Peggy Wright and Dorna Hunt. Canaveral experts, Art Key and Wayne Matthews, are conferring in the corner on their new rocket, and we interrupt them. New Year's Eve is no time to talk business! Maitre'd Kenny Heise suggests a Cheromcka Delight, to be served by anyone of their even more delightful bunny waitresses; Paula Markowski, Laurel Bjork, Shari Gorham, and Jackie Genereux. Bartender Lee Welch is setting up drinks on the house ordered by Larry Roache—he's entertaining his embalmed clients, who are still in his bright red hearse.

CLASS PROPHECY

Next, at Derosier's "International House", doorman Carl Webster attends the Cadillac of Sheik Bereik as he emerges followed by his lovely harem—Libby Lusk, Carleen Power, Joanne Lopes, and Joanne Nagel. Inside, he joins the Diplomatic Circle, where Martin Wheeler, Prime Minister of Merrie England and Dominic Pizzi, Italian Ambassador, are engaged in vehement argument. Just a while ago, Jennifer Dunbar, top journalist, bombed in to join her colleague Bonnie MacLeod who is interviewing Olympic champion Earle Fucillo.

We can't forget to go to Rockefeller Center to see the new Zaniboni dance line and featuring Donna Pike, Marie Randlett, Donna MacMillan, Cheryl White, Bev Bryson, and Pat Todino.

Straying in from Greenwich Village are Marti LaVigne, Jean Winter, and Louis DiMestico, beatnik painters who have arrived to paint the town red. Blasting off, not from Cape Canaveral, but from Indianapolis in an old model Wuest which will only strain to the slow speed of 195 miles an hour are Marilyn Meserve and Richie Ware.

Over in Keene's Kandy Kitchen, famous chocolate chef, John Lindberg, is whipping up a batch of poisonous Champignies, or better known as butterscotch bits, for Marilyn and Dick to take home to their ten brats. We decline any free sample, because we're anxious to get over to Ells Airport. The Vallencourt Special is expected to come racing down the runway any time now, and we want to be there to welcome our old friends who crashed the fashion world in Paris. Here they come, stepping high! Dorothy Pedersen models a stately Cameron gown, and Lynn Sayce is expensively glamorous in an original $4000 Belinciaga. Cathy Lemon appears sportingly in the newest basketball uniform for girls. Judy Bacher sends murmurs of admiration through the crowd as she appears in a beguiling Landry Bikini.

We return with them to Brow's Bang-Up Restaurant to celebrate the last few minutes of 1983. Mayor Horner comes in with Mr. America of 1984, Bob Long, and his starstruck fan, Mary Sweinimer who staggers under the weight of his latest 36 trophies.

Only a few seconds left now; everybody is stampeding for Time Square. In the hush before the tolling of midnight, we can hear Janice Byrnes, Arlene Murphy, and Jean Hayes whispering their greetings from the West Coast. There's Allen Tufankjian now guiding the time ball into 1984. This should be a grand year for us all!

"LILACS in the RAIN"

MAJOR CHARACTERS

Lavell Lambert	Marilyn Brine
Charles Attabury	Carl Webster
Letty Lambert	Shelley Smith
Raymond Connelly	Albert Derosier
Julia Lambert	Nancy Willis
John Lambert	Robert Conway
Laurie Lambert	Carol Bodwicz
Bill Smith	Lawrence Roache
Shauna Lambert	Janice Byrnes
Mabel Attabury	Lynn Sayce
Paul	Paul Flebotte

Lilacs in the Rain, presented by the Senior Class on April 23 & 24, 1963, is the story of John Lambert and his four "romantic" daughters. Lavell, the oldest daughter, engaged to Charles, finds herself romantically interested in a young man named Paul. But, Paul is a very wolfish type of person who uses the same line for every girl.

Both Laurie and Shauna add great laughter to the play while Letty adds the emotional appeal.

We, the Class of 1963, would like to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Harrison for his fine directing.

CLASS

We, the Class of 1963, being in reasonable possession of our faculties, do hereby bequeath these gifts:

To Mr. Smith we leave our senior privileges.

Ellen Cameron, Lorraine Wong, and Lois DeCoste leave their good dispositions to the underclassmen—they'll need it!

Donna Vallancourt leaves . . .

Pat Todino leaves F.D.R. in pieces.

Dick Sheldon leaves his Sports Column to a junior boy.

Paul Flebotte leaves a copy of "Where the Boys Are."

Richard Romano leaves for the pizzeria.

Dave Hayden leaves his quarterback position to Timmy Porter.

Joe McLaughlin, Allen Pearse, and Gerry Cantoni leave their curls to LaDonna McGlone.

CLASS WILL

Dave Horner leaves "Shoes."

Art Key and George Peterson leave to discover synthetic brains.

Joan Heney, Jane Allen, Judy Gorrill, Jackie Genereux, Janice Wolfe, and Angela Marchetti leave for the altar.

Arlene Murphy, Jean Hayes, and Janice Byrnes leave their vocal chords to the Seven Wonders of the World.

Dianne Maloney, Joy Dunbar, and Peggy Wright leave their jokes to Mr. Spratt.

Kenny Brown leaves the Music Room in a shambles.

David Harraden leaves Period 1 English to the defenseless juniors.

Bonnie Renny leaves her beauty to Anne Ingram.

Brenda Pina and Honey Bodwicz leave their megaphones to Jean Lindsay and Sally Craig.

Kenny O'Connell leaves a strip of rubber to the driver training course.

Bob Pratt and Al Derosier leave in search of Abington girls.

This year, under the fine coaching of Mr. Mosher, Mr. Lydon, and head-coach Mr. Teahan, our football team had a sensational season, winning three, tying three, and losing only two. With the Seniors leading the way, the boys tied the Champs, Scituate, and lost to Plymouth in the last 48 seconds. Our boys fought, and fought hard, proving to be a credit to Whitman-Hanson.

The Panther's huddle prepares for another Whitman-Hanson win.

PANTHERS' CHEERLEADERS

This year the cheerleaders in their snappy red and black uniforms performed a series of new cheers to liven the spirit of our school. Co-captains Honey Bodwicz and Brenda Pina, with the aid of Miss Briard as Coach, led the squad of eight girls at each football and basketball game and at all our rallies.

FIELD HOCKEY

Congratulations to this year's field hockey team! In its first year, the team played remarkably well, proving itself to be a worthy and spirited opponent.

The senior co-captains Cathy Lemon and Jean Winter, did an outstanding job under the fine coaching of Miss Fenton.

A goal for W.H.R.S.

As always, the girls' basketball team has proved to be a credit to Whitman-Hanson. Although this has been a year of rebuilding, the girls have made a fine showing against such formidible teams as Silver Lake and Plymouth, playing their best game against Silver Lake, winning 35-24. With only three Seniors leaving, Captain Cheryl Lovell, Mary Ann Sweinimer, and Cathy Lemon, we can hope for a fine season next year with experienced forwards Dianne McPate, Betty Fullerton and Jane Conant and guards Chris Grande and Janet Sayce returning. We hope to see Miss Pratt and the team at the Girls' Tournament next year.

Last year Student Council instituted a new two-party system of electing officers. At the spring conventions, a candidate for each office was nominated by each of the two parties, the "Educats" and the "Socialites". After a week of campaigning, one Educat and four Socialites were elected.

Through the Christian Children's Fund Inc., the Council has adopted Laverna Marcia Jones, a Pima Indian girl who lives on a reservation in Blackwater, Arizona.

In addition, the Council members have compiled a handbook for the purpose of informing the freshmen about the school rules and all extra curricular activities.

THE "PANTHERS PRINT"

Due to the efforts of Mr. LaFranchise, Mr. Rodick, and Mr. Cromwell this year "The Panther's Print" has become an overwhelming success. With the aid of the above mentioned and Mr. A. H. Sullivan of the "Whitman Times", the newspaper has surpassed all efforts in the past. Kevin O'Brien—Editor-in-Chief, Donna Daley—Associate Editor, and Jennifer Dunbar — News Editor have contributed their time and energy to make this year a first in the history of the "Panther's Print".

The Ski Club, one of the most active organizations offered in our school, has doubled its membership since last year.

The members have earned over two hundred dollars in their four money-raising activities: a car wash, a bottle drive, a bake sale, and the sale of Alpine hats.

The money will be used for the annual Ski Trip to North Conway Feb. 19 and 20, and a special dinner to be held at the Toll House at the end of the year.

The highlight of the season is the Winter Carnival—which includes a Formal dance and a snow-sculpture contest.

OF 1964

The Junior Class began its successful year with the "Panther's Prance"—the hit dance of the season. The scene was that of a football field, complete with a 'half-time' performance of drum majorettes and band members. The highlight of the evening was the choosing of Miss Touchdown, Anne Ingram, who reigned at the Thanksgiving Day game. This selection of a football queen set a precedent which we hope will continue in the years to come.

Now the class is looking forward to the Junior Prom—an event that is sure to be a success under the guidance of our capable advisors, Mr. Wood and Mrs. Morris.

We of the Junior Class would like to wish all our friends in the Senior Class the best of luck this year and after their graduation. Always remembering the good times we have shared these past years, we will work harder than ever to make our senior year as memorable as yours.

Stepping into our second year of high school was even more exciting than entering our Freshman year, for now we felt that we were really a part of the wonderful spirit of Whitman-Hanson Regional.

Many sophomores represented us in the various club and sport activities, particularly Parker Bates who played varsity basketball and football, and Diane McPate, Betty Fullerton, and Janet Sayce who were members of the girls varsity basketball team.

The big event of the year was our Valentine Dance, "Cupid's Night Out", which was held on the evening of February 15. Due to our careful preparation, the dance proved successful—financially and socially.

The Class of '65 extends its sincere congratulations to the graduating Class of 1963.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Class of '66—with a total enrollment of over 300 students—has entered into the spirit of high school life already. Our attendance at football and basketball games has shown our interest, as has our membership in the many clubs offered at Whitman-Hanson Regional.

The Freshman Mixer, held early in the year, helped us to become better acquainted with our classmates. Now we are working hard to organize Hector's Hop, our class dance to be held March 22.

Together with our advisors, Mr. LaFranchise and Miss McDonnell, we would like to extend our best hopes and wishes to the Senior Class.
